DYNAMITE "LET ALL BOYS JOIN IN COAL OF WARSHIP WEDNESDAY'S WALK"

—E. P. WESTON

FAMOUS PEDESTRIAN URGES YOUNGSTERS TO COME OUT IN FULL FORCE.

Owing to the frightful storm of Saturday many boys who would otherwise have joined in the first walk of the E. P. Weston Walking Club were unable to be present. Every member of the club and every boy who wants to learn to walk should come out next Wednesday afternoon for the second walk. Should it storm, be sure and wear your rubbers or heavy shoes, which will keep your feet dry. Don't stay away on account of the cold or a storm.—Edward Payson Weston.

Tears for Amelie, Heroine of Tragedy in Lisbon, When Husband and Son Were Slain in Her Presence—Franco, the Dictator, Driven From Power.

LISBON, Feb. 3. Physicians fear that the shock of the tragedy threatens the mind of Queen Amelie, widow of the late King Carlos and mother of the slain Crown Prince Luiz and of the present King Manuel.

Her Majesty has kept a sleepless vigil beside the bodies of her husband and son ever since the dreadful event took place, refusing food and declaring that she wants to follow them to the grave.

Portugal's new King Manuel II, a boy of 15, is already firmly settled on his throne.

Saturday's assassination of his father, King Carlos, and brother, the Crown Prince Luiz, failed to hurt the young dynasty in power. It strengthened it instead. Stricken by horror, the long warring factions seem harmonized under Manuel's rule.

Should revolutionary trouble break out tomorrow, their assistance has been offered. The second British military expedition from Gibraltar and the Atlantic squadron from Vigo are on the way to Lisbon harbor. Both will act in concert with the King's Portuguese troops.

King Amelie is suffering little from the shock of the tragedy. She is watching the King and Crown Prince with interest. The King and Crown Prince are watching the King and Crown Prince with interest.

Our 4th Annual Embroidery Exhibition

Opens Monday Morning

Beginning Monday and continuing throughout the entire week, there will be placed on our Millinery Parlors a most remarkable and beautiful collection of embroideries and needlework, consisting of Rattenberg Lace Collars, Lace Draperies, Center Pieces, Scarfs, Table Covers, Bedspreads, Pillow Tops, Embroidered Short Waists, etc.

The many pieces to be shown are the work of students, who, under our own free instructions from day to day, have during the past year been skillfully engaged in completing a series of pieces, which will be awarded during the week by competent judges. A most wonderful display of Mr. Mellick Centre Pieces, including Floral and other designs, brought out in natural colors on Pillows and Covers, are included in this annual exhibition.

Free embroidery lessons are given each day (except Wednesdays) from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. and 2 to 4 P. M. to all purchasers of materials from our embroidery department. You are cordially invited to attend.

Second Weston Club Walk in Dorchester on Next Wednesday

THOUSANDS INTEND TO FOLLOW FAMOUS PEDESTRIAN ON TRIP

Walk With Weston.

BY HARRY B. METCALF

Come out and dare the wintry air,
Wherein is health and pleasure;
No fireside fare can half compare
With ozone in good measure.
Just let the thrill of action fill
Your veins—put coat and vest on,
Join in the throng that strides along
In joyful walk with Weston!

PROPER WALKING POSE BY WESTON

There is no way to walk except by walking. I want to see every boy and man who walked with me on Saturday at Edward Everett square, Dorchester, on Wednesday next, in the meantime walk at least three miles to-night and to-morrow night. Wear heavy soled shoes. Baffle your feet before you retire. Unbutton your coats while walking, and button them up tightly when you stop, even if only for a few minutes. Don't eat heartily just before you start out to walk.

Edward Weston, who has been walking with the club since its inception, will lead the walk on Wednesday next. The walk will start at 7 o'clock and will go to the South End, passing through the city and ending at the harbor. The walk is open to all who wish to join, and the fee is only a few cents. The walk is a good one for health and pleasure, and it is a good way to see the city and the harbor. The walk is a good one for health and pleasure, and it is a good way to see the city and the harbor.

MORE COME IN TO JOIN WESTON CLUB

The Weston Club has a large number of members, and many more are expected to join. The club is a good one for health and pleasure, and it is a good way to see the city and the harbor. The club is a good one for health and pleasure, and it is a good way to see the city and the harbor.

Big Jobs for Big Men

A few years ago high grade men never advertised for positions. But times are changed since The American became the market place for men. The other day a man got a job as sales manager of a famous manufacturing concern. The president in hiring him said: "I was influenced to write you because you advertised that you were not a cheap man."

In a Daily Newspaper

It is only one case out of thousands. Employers who read the "Situation Wanted" columns of The American every single day cannot fail to find the kind of a man they could use to advantage. They have learned that the highest class of men are secured through advertising rather than from employment agents or exchanges.

DOCTORS FEAR FOR SANITY OF QUEEN AMELIE

ENGLISH WARSHIPS SENT TO LISBON TO AID IN DOWNING REVOLUTIONARY OUTBREAKS.

Doctors who have been called to Lisbon to attend to the queen are of the opinion that she is suffering from a severe form of insanity. The queen's condition is such that she is unable to recognize her surroundings and is often in a state of delirium. The doctors fear that she may become a danger to herself and others if she is not properly cared for. The English warships sent to Lisbon are to assist in the suppression of the revolutionary outbreak in Portugal. The queen's condition is a matter of great concern to the British government, and it is hoped that the warships will be able to bring her back to England for treatment.
